

Technical Sales Rep – Sample Prep, Consumables (Mid-West / Chicago)

Mid-West (Illinois, Indiana, or Wisconsin)

Are you interested in a career in sales and looking to work for a small to medium sized company where you can grow? VRS is currently searching for a Technical Sales Representative for a laboratory consumables and instrumentation company. This is an exciting opportunity for a chemist looking for a transition from the bench into sales, or for someone already experienced in sales. Hands on experience with sample preparation (SPE) and/or lab automation is necessary for success in this role.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Identify and cultivate business opportunities in the defined territory (IA, IL, IN, KY, MI MO, ND, NE, OH, SD, WI) in a range of lab settings
 - focus on Chicago, Indianapolis, Madison
- Understand customer needs and ensure they understand how our client's portfolio of products would benefit them through on-site demonstrations, seminars, sales calls, and training courses
- Assist customers with technical/product support via hands on training and troubleshooting of sample preparation products and consumables.
- Liaise with marketing, product development and internal chemists to provide customer feedback for development of new techniques and products.

Candidate Attributes and Qualifications:

- Minimum of BS in Chemistry or closely related subject
- A hands-on understanding of sample preparation /extraction and separation science is essential
- Must be customer-focused, self-motivated, and driven to reach and exceed sales goals!
- Looking for adventurous scientists with the desire to travel and speak with other chemists about new and exciting products and technologies!

Compensation / Benefits:

- Base $60-80k annual + uncapped commission + great benefits! (total package approx. $85-125k)
- Includes excellent vehicle reimbursement and coverage of all travel/home office expenses (laptop + iPhone + iPad!)
- Position is HOME-BASED
